EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

STANDARDS COMMITTEE

17th MARCH 2017

Code of Conduct training for Town and Community Councillors

For several years the Standards Committee has arranged training sessions on the Members Code of Conduct for Town and Community Councillors. These have been held in County Hall in June, and the 2016 sessions were well received with approximately 100 delegates in attendance over two evenings.

Preparations are now being made to repeat these sessions in 2017 and a revised presentation is attached which seeks to incorporate feedback from last year's events and reflect that following the local government elections in May 2017 there is likely to be an increase in the number of Town and Community Councillors without any previous knowledge of the Code of Conduct.

The main change is the re-writing of the section on Personal Interests. Although the reference to the 'easy use' guide is retained, the slides setting out the various grounds that give rise to a personal interest have been re-inserted to better explain to new councillors their obligations under this part of the Code. In addition;

1. A new section has been inserted setting out those personal interests which the Code provides are NOT prejudicial.
2. A new section has been inserted setting out where to get advice and emphasising the role of the Clerk.

Once the presentation has been finalised it will be send for translation.

As regards the venue and dates for these training sessions, the Committee needs to decide whether to repeat last year's arrangements (two evening sessions in County Hall), increase the number of sessions and/or host them at a variety of locations outside of County Hall.

The committee will also need to decide whether to place a limit upon the number of delegates that attend from each council and/or give priority particular groups such as newly elected councillors or council clerks.
