EXECUTIVE SUMMARY
STANDARDS COMMITTEE
19/10/18

PUBLIC SERVICES OMBUDSMAN FOR WALES ANNUAL REPORT

Every year the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales publishes an annual report and statement of accounts giving information about both maladministration and code of conduct cases that his office has dealt with during the preceding 12 months.

During the year the Ombudsman received 270 code complaints, an increase of 14% on the previous year. This was due entirely to a 33% increase in code complaints against Town & Community Councillors.

Of these by far the most common complaint (representing 42% of the total) was that a councillor or co-opted member had failed to promote equality and respect.

Of those complaints (plus those brought forward from the previous year) the Ombudsman closed 247 cases. However of these he only investigated 30 (down 32%) and found evidence of breach in only 13 (down 41%)

Of the 213 code complaints which were closed 'after initial consideration', the Ombudsman does not state what proportion were because of a lack of evidence and what proportion were due to him determining it was not in the public interest to investigate.

There were 6 complaints made against members of Carmarthenshire County Council, all of which were closed after initial consideration.

A total of 16 code complaints were made against the members of 3 different Town and Community Councils in Carmarthenshire during the year.

Council	No.of Complaints	Outcome
Llanddowror & Llanmilo	2	Closed after initial consideration
Llanelli Rural	1	No evidence of breach
Pembrey and Burry Port	14	Closed after initial consideration
