EXECUTIVE SUMMARY
DYFED – POWYS POLICE AND CRIME PANEL
25/01/19

FAIR FUNDING FOR RURAL POLICING

The National Rural Crime Network is an organisation of Police and Crime Commissioners and other Rural stakeholders whose aim is to improve rural policing, including how it is funded by central government.

The network has, in conjunction with the University of Plymouth carried out a study of how rural policing is currently funded and what level of funding it needs.

The report looks at the impact of different funding formula upon different forces and makes recommendations as to how rural policing should be funded in the future.

Panel members are asked to note the report, question the Commissioner in relation to his response to it and make such recommendations as they think fit.
