EXECUTIVE SUMMARY
LICENSING COMMITTEE
DATE: 16TH DECEMBER, 2015

GAMBLING ACT 2005
GAMBLING COMMISSION TRAINING SESSION

The Gambling Act 2005 came into force in 2007 and brought in a new comprehensive system for gambling regulation in Great Britain. The Act established a dedicated regulator at national level, in the form of the Gambling Commission. It also gave responsibility to local authorities for regulating gambling at a local level.

Licensing Authorities have responsibility for licensing gambling premises within their area, as well as undertaking functions in relation to lower stake gaming machines and processing temporary and occasional use notices.

The Gambling Commission has responsibility for granting operating and personal licences for commercial gambling operators. The legislation also provides scope for the Commission to set an overall direction at national level, which includes producing The Guidance to Licensing Authorities, to which licensing authorities must have regard.

This guidance document as well as the Licence Conditions and Codes of Practice have both recently been updated by the Commission. This training session will provide an update regarding the Gambling Act and the recent changes to guidance documents.
