EXECUTIVE SUMMARY
DYFED – POWYS POLICE AND CRIME PANEL
03/07/19

FEEDBACK FROM THE POLICING ACCOUNTABILITY BOARD
ON THE 7th MAY 2019 IN LLANDRINDOD WELLS

The Scrutiny of how the Police and Crime Commissioner holds the Chief Constable to account is a key function of the Panel.

One of the methods by which the Commissioner performs this function is the holding of public Policing Accountability Board meetings.

Panel members regularly attend these meetings as observers to satisfy themselves that the Commissioner is holding the Chief Constable to account appropriately.

The last Policing Accountability Board was held in Llandrindod Wells on the 7th May. The main items on the agenda were;

1. Force Performance – Quarter 4
2. Financial Performance – Quarter 4
3. A Deep Dive scrutiny report on the approach to tackling illegal drugs

Panel members in attendance will provide verbal feedback on their observations.
