Schedule 8 of the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011 requires the Panel to review that proposed appointment and report to the Commissioner as to whether or not the candidate should be appointed.

In reviewing the proposed appointment the Panel should consider the following factors;

1. Whether the candidate has the required level of professional competence
2. Whether the candidate has the required personal independence to carry out the role

The Panel may ask questions of the candidate in respect of these factors, but should not ask questions relating to;

At the conclusion of the review the Panel must report to the Police and Crime Commissioner as to whether or not the candidate should be appointed.
