Rhydygors	1	Mr M Collins	Mr Ian Berryman, Headteacher	'Mr Collins has shown an interest in being considered as an LA Governor for Rhydygors School. He has lived in Carmarthenshire since 1981 and went to Newcastle Emlyn Comprehensive School. Mr Collins has a good understanding of Rhydygors School and its complex issues in terms of providing schooling for some of our most vulnerable children within the county. As a Detective Sergeant and Detective Inspector working in Carmarthen, he had regular interaction with the staff at the school over a number of years. Mr Collins fully supports learning at all levels and, as a senior leader in policing, he would be very happy to share his skills and experience. He knows the community well and is fully committed to continuing his professional development in terms of skills and knowledge relating to school governance.'
