

Memorials Consultation

We are aware of public comment and discussion about monuments and memorials across Wales and in the county, and in particular the monument to Sir Thomas Picton in Carmarthen town.

The Equality and Diversity (Black, Asian, and Minority Ethnic) Task and Finish Group, set up by the Council's Executive Board, has begun its work, and is keen to understand more about the public perception of the monument.

We are seeking your comments, so that we as a Council can reflect on people's views and decide how best to recognise and commemorate the contribution made by historical figures.

- 1 Do you think Carmarthenshire County Council (and key partners) need to take any steps in response to the recent public discussion about the Sir Thomas Picton monument?

Yes

No

- 2 Respond if you answered 'Yes' to question 1. What steps do you think should be taken? Please keep your response to 200 words, as we will transfer the text to an electronic system for analysis.

- 3 Respond if you answered 'No' to question 1. What comments do you wish us to consider? Please keep your response to 200 words, as we will transfer the text to an electronic system for analysis.

The following demographic questions are asked within the survey so that we can find out the views of people with different characteristics, such as those listed in the Equality Act 2010.

Your responses cannot be traced back to you as an individual.
