EXECUTIVE SUMMARY
POLICY & RESOURCES SCRUTINY COMMITTEE
2 MARCH 2021

Strategic Equality Plan Annual Report 2019-20 and Action Plan 2020-24

The Equality Act 2010 includes a public sector equality duty, replacing the separate duties on race, disability and gender equality.

The new general duty covers the following protected characteristics:

- Age
- Gender reassignment
- Sex
- Race – including ethnic or national origin, colour or nationality
- Religion and belief – including lack of belief
- Disability
- Marriage and Civil Partnership
- Pregnancy and maternity
- Sexual Orientation.

The aim of the general duty is to ensure that public authorities and those carrying out a public function consider how they can positively contribute to a fairer society through advancing equality and good relations in their day-to-day activities.

Public bodies are required to have due regard to:

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct that is prohibited by the Act
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a relevant protected characteristic and those who do not
- Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who not.

Annual Reporting as a Specific Duty

The Wales specific equality duties set out the requirement to report annually under the heading Reports by authorities on compliance with the general duty. This is a useful reminder that the essential purpose of the specific duties is to help authorities to have better due regard to the need to achieve the 3 aims of the General Duty. The Regulations invite authorities to produce an annual report covering any matter that is relevant to the authority fulfilling the general and specific equality duties.
