Rules of engagement

This infographic can be pinned to your social media profile to outline the ways in which you intend to engage with people online. These rules are designed to give all users a clear 'code' by which they should operate, with a clear statement that users can be blocked, or posts deleted, if they fail to participate in a civil manner.

The images come with ALT text and a 'long description'. If you choose to post the image your social media page please try to use the ALT text as appropriate. To download and use the image, please click on an image to visit it on a separate page, then 'save as' and post to your desired location.

Handling online abuse

This infographic gives councillors a quick reference guide to help them to understand the steps they can take to protect themselves online, how to respond to abusive messages, and encourages councillors to seek support where needed.
