EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

24/01/2022

REGULATION OF INVESTIGATORY POWERS ACT

Directed Surveillance

During 2021 no authorisations have been issued under this Act for the conduct of directed surveillance

Covert human Intelligence Sources

No authorisations have been issued for the use of Covert Human Intelligence Sources during 2021.

Interception of Communications Data

No applications have been made by the authority for the interception of communications data during 2021

Unauthorised Covert Surveillance

There have been no reports of unauthorised surveillance during 2021

RIPA Advice

As at the date of writing this report advice was sought from council officers on 7 occasions during 2021 regarding the use of covert surveillance powers. On each occasion advice was given which rendered the use of those powers unnecessary.

Statistical Returns

Annual returns reflecting the above have been provided to the Office of the Surveillance Commissioner and the Interception of Communications Commissioner when requested

Covert Surveillance Procedure Document

The Councils procedure document has been reviewed and no changes are required at this time. The procedure document therefore remains as approved by the Executive Board member on the last occasion.

Training

There is a need to provide refresher training to relevant staff. This will be organised for 2022.
