What are the Council's functions?

HOW THE COUNCIL OPERATES

All councillors meet together as the Council. Meetings of the Council are normally open to the public, but occasionally the Council will resolve to go into private session if confidential or exempt business is to be transacted. Private sessions of Council are rare. At Council meetings councillors decide the Council's overall policies and set the budget each year. The Council has a Cabinet which is responsible in turn for implementing policies agreed by the Council and taking executive decisions on matters which are not the responsibility of the Council or of one of its committees.

HOW THE COUNCIL WORKS

The Council comprises 75 elected Councillors representing 51 Electoral Wards. The Council normally meets on a monthly basis and has a list of functions including adopting and changing the Constitution, approving and adopting the Budget and Policy Framework, appointing the Leader, determining and agreeing Committees and their terms of reference.

Up to ten of the Council's members make up the Cabinet (the Executive), including the Leader of the Council. The Cabinet is responsible for carrying out all the local authority functions which are not the responsibility of the Council. Cabinet Members are responsible for decision making within specific areas of interest, known as portfolios.

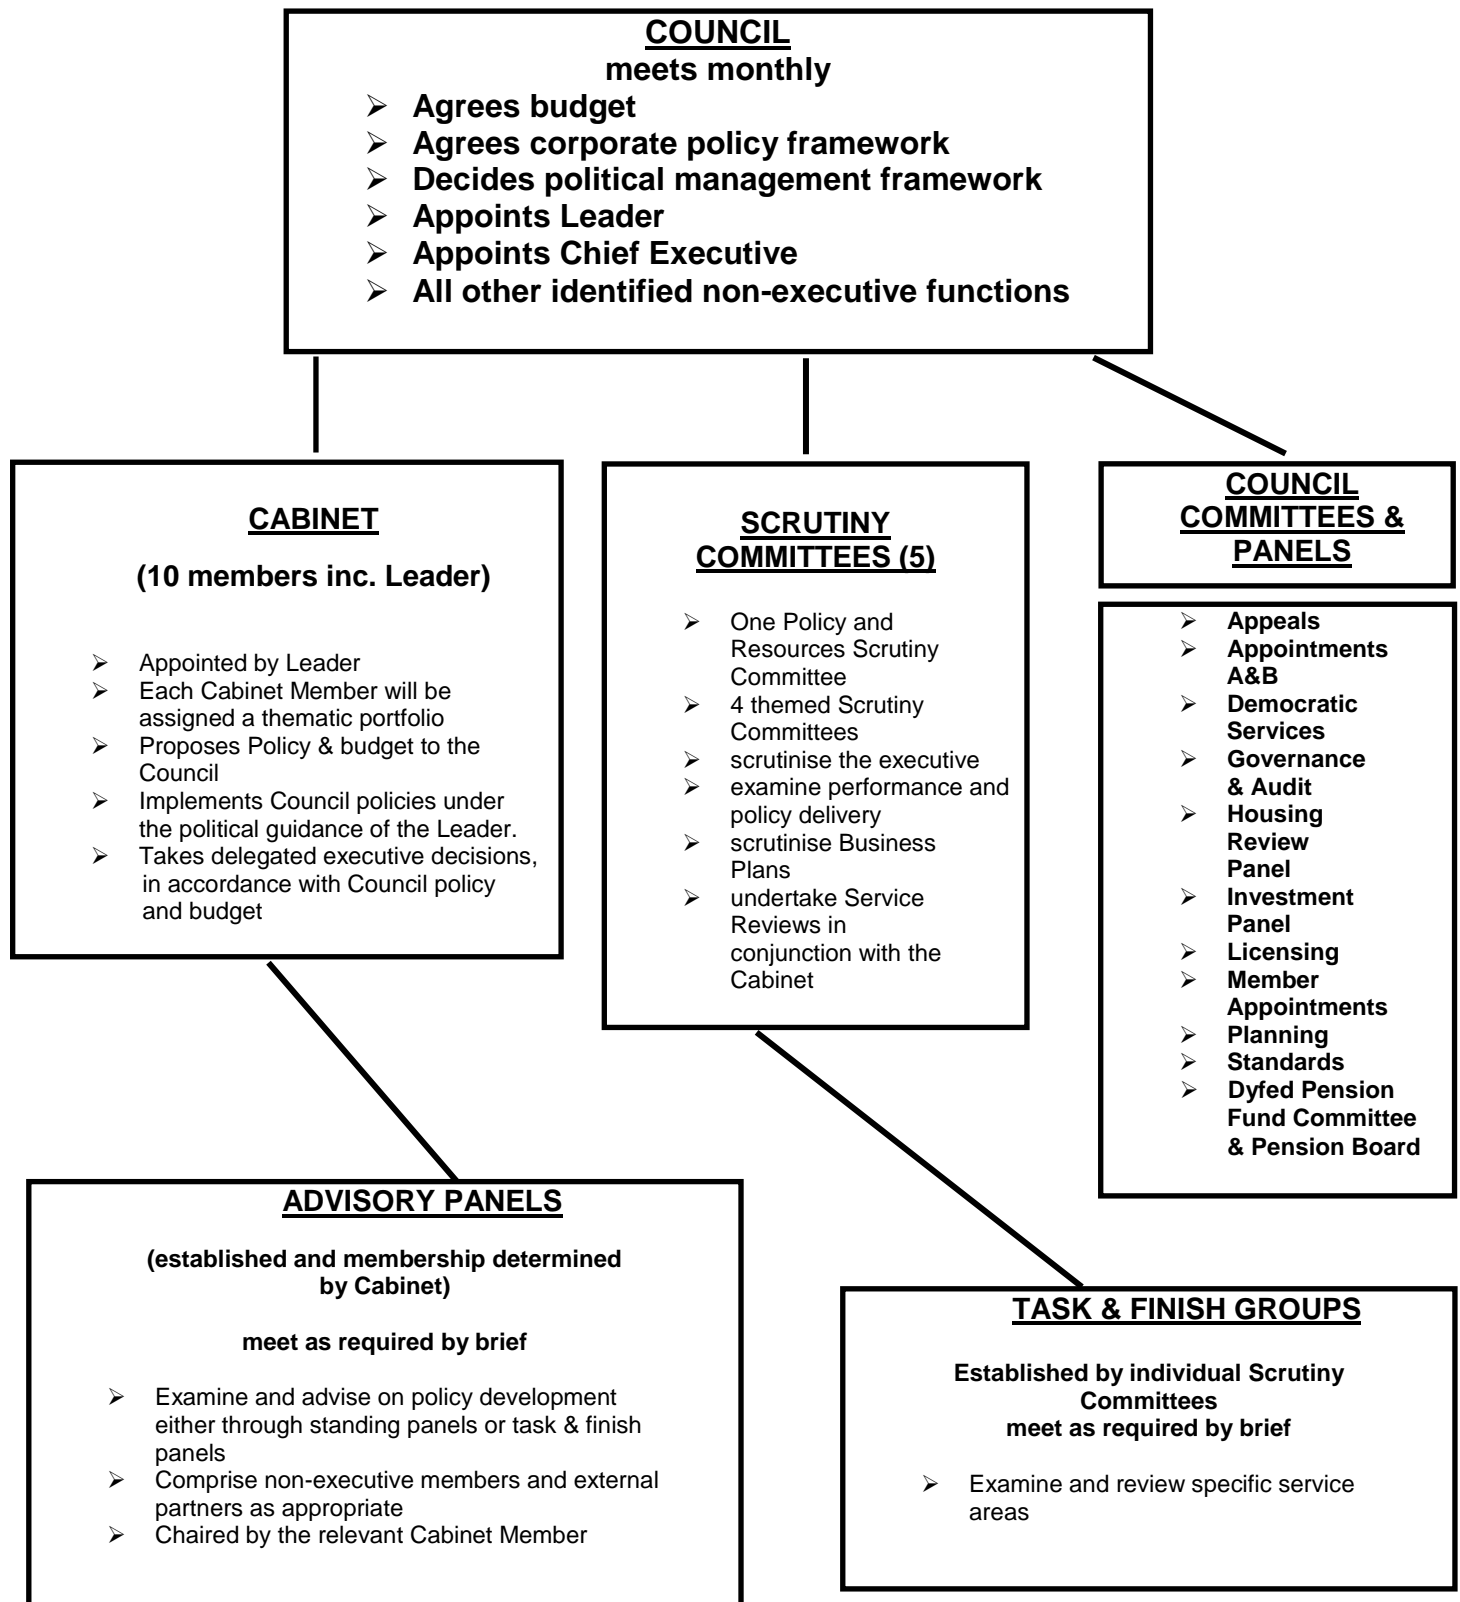

Scrutiny Committees act as a 'critical friend' to the Cabinet and other decision makers in order to promote better services, policies and decisions. Working in a similar way to parliamentary select committees, scrutiny involves councillors who are not in the cabinet.

The Planning Committee, Licensing Committees and Governance & Audit Committee make the Council's regulatory decisions. Planning Committee determines planning applications, Licensing Committee determines licences to drive a hackney carriage or a private hire vehicle (taxis), public entertainment licences for premises amongst others, and Governance & Audit Committee reviews and scrutinises the Council's financial affairs. Democratic Services Committee reviews the adequacy of provision by the Authority to discharge the democratic services function and there is also a Standards Committee to promote high standards of conduct and support Councillors to comply with the Code of Conduct.

How to become a member of the Council and what it entails

HOW TO BECOME A COUNCILLOR

The next Local Government Elections will be held in May 2027. This section provides you with information on how to stand for election and what is expected of you should you be elected as a Councillor for Carmarthenshire County Council.

STANDING AS A CANDIDATE

A candidate for election must complete a set of nomination papers that must be signed by the candidate in the presence of a witness who must attest the signature. You then need to win a majority of the votes cast at the ballot box, if there is a contest for the seat. The number of votes you need to win depends on the electoral division in which you choose to stand for election. Some electoral divisions are two or three member divisions.

Nomination packs will be available early in 2027. If you would like to register your interest please contact Electoral Services on 01267 228609.

If you are thinking of standing as a candidate for a particular political party, then you should first get in touch with that party's local organisation. If you plan to stand for election as an independent Councillor, contact us and we will be pleased to give you more information.

Councillors receive a salary which is determined annually by the Independent Remuneration Panel for Wales and can also claim travel and subsistence costs (subsistence is paid for 'out of county' meals and accommodation only) when undertaking official duties. Councillors can also claim towards the costs of care and personal assistance in order for them to carry out their approved duties.

The Welsh Government has approved funding for a pilot scheme to fund reasonable adjustments and support for disabled candidates seeking election to the 2022 Local Government elections. Further information can be found here.

Further information on allowances can be viewed by clicking on the following Independent Remuneration Panel for Wales web page:

WHAT HAPPENS IF I AM ELECTED?

The Council is composed of 75 Councillors who are elected every five years. Councillors are democratically accountable to residents of their electoral division. The overriding duty of councillors is to the whole community, but they have a special duty to their constituents, including those who did not vote for them.

Councillors are entitled to a basic salary (currently £14,368 per annum 2021-22). Senior Salaries and other allowances/expenses are paid dependant on the roles and responsibilities you may have following election. Further information on payments can be obtained from the Independent Remuneration Panel for Wales (IRPW). A copy of the draft determinations for 2022-23 can also be found on the IRPW website.

Councillors are also entitled to travel allowances and those with caring responsibilities can also receive reimbursement of costs of care.

Once elected Councillors are expected to attend various training and development sessions during their term of office. An induction session is provided for all new and returning Councillors during the first 12 months in office with further training provided on an ongoing basis through member development events.

If you are elected, you should be prepared to set aside the first two weeks after the election for the member Induction Session in May/June 2027

Councillors are expected to attend meetings and committees and are bound to observe the provisions of the Councillor's Code of Conduct.

As local representatives, councillors have responsibilities towards their constituents and local organisations. These responsibilities and duties often depend on what the councillor wants to achieve and how much time is available and may include: attending governing body meetings of schools within their ward, attending meetings of local organisations such as tenants' associations, bodies affecting the wider community, raising issues on behalf of members of the public, holding surgeries for residents to raise issues and meeting with individual residents in their own homes.

HOW MUCH TIME DOES IT TAKE UP?

If you are in employment and intend to stand as a candidate you may wish to ask your employer what provisions they may have in place to allow you to attend to Council business. It is estimated that on average, councillors spend the equivalent of three to four days a week on council business. Obviously, there are some councillors who spend more time than this - and some less.

The Welsh Local Government Association has produced a Be a Councillor Be the Change in association with local authorities which is an useful guide for prospective candidates.

This document applies from 1st May 2022.

All Council meetings are paperless and it is recommended that all candidates are able to use IT confidently or are willing to undertake training.

The Council is a bilingual Authority and, as a Councillor, you will be able to operate in your chosen language, be that Welsh or English, and interpretation facilities are available at all Council meetings to facilitate this. Welsh language training is also available for any Councillors wishing to learn the language.

The benefits to Councillors of using social media to communicate with local people.

Social media has become a powerful tool for councillors, helping them to engage with communities, raise awareness of community issues, events, or council initiatives and to seek views and receive feedback.

Social media has changed how politics works, it makes politicians and public institutions more accessible, allows individuals to have their voices heard and helps share ideas or promote campaigns.

By using social media you can:-

- Learn about local issues, and concerns within your ward.
- Find the latest news and publications from Carmarthenshire County Council, other local authorities, the Welsh Government and organisations such as the Welsh Local Government Association.
- Promote your role and what you do on a day to day basis.
- Social media is instant, you can share information quickly and gain opinions of your constituents.

Many councillors already use social media however as a councillor, there are additional things to consider when using it, including the Code of Conduct and managing expectation.

Once elected, Councillors are invited to attend an induction session on using social media and the Council also has an e-learning module available. As a Councillor you will be personally responsible for the content you publish and you must abide by the Code of Conduct when posting information as the Code of Conduct applies to online and social media content, and by referring on line to your role as Councillor you will be deemed to be acting in your 'official capacity' and the Code will apply,.

The Welsh Local Government Association has provided free guidance for Councillors along with some tips and advice in terms of handling on-line abuse.
