Community Scrutiny Committee Task & Finish Group 2022

Emergency Interim Social Housing Allocations Policy

Draft Planning & Scoping Document

Task & Finish Objectives(s)	To develop an Emergency Interim proposal and recommendations to present to Cabinet and full Council for approval. The work aligns with the review of the current SHAP and the development of the Rapid Rehousing Transition Plan in line with Welsh Government policy to make homelessness rare, brief, and unrepeated.
Context	Background The Social Housing Allocations Policy (SHAP) was approved by Full Council on 14 th December 2016 in preparation for the launch of the Choice Based Lettings service. The existing policy gives priority to Band A applicants; however, it does not include a letting target to determine what percentage of empty homes should be allocated to each priority group.
	Following a recent review, we know that in 2021/22, 52% of all allocations of Social Housing (CCC & RSLs combined) were to households to whom we owed a duty under the Housing Wales Act. Even with this level of priority as of March 2022 we still had an overall open homelessness caseload of 783 households requiring housing. There are currently 122 households in temporary accommodation (TA). This number is set to increase as a direct consequence of the issues, policies, and market conditions set out in the full report.
	There is a severe shortage of affordable housing in the County across both Social and PRS. 4,334 households are waiting for social housing in the County but only 839 tenancies commenced in 2021/22 (including RSL allocations). During 2021/22 we discharged our duty to the private rented sector for 213 households, this trend has turned, and we currently have 195 households under Section 21 notice of eviction to leave their PRS tenancies. As a result, the waiting list is growing all the time.
	As the requirements of residents have changed, with more applicants in severe need, the current letting policy is not currently fit for purpose, and the Council needs to create an interim fairer, more transparent housing register, better suited to the situation in the County today.
	The SHAP requires to be reviewed regularly but due to additional demand placed on the Housing Service as a result of COVID 19 and Welsh Government's 'no-one left out approach' this has not been progressed as quickly as had been hoped (however, a full review will

What will the Task and Finish Group's work focus on?	The Community and Regeneration Scrutiny Committee acting as the Task and Finish group will meet to discuss and agree a simplified interim SHAP based on data and evidence provided by officers. This will enable a transparent process for allocating homes during this emergency period. It will enable staff to focus on their caseload and not be distracted by the bidding system; and target households in greatest need who have been waiting longest. The agreed Emergency Interim Allocation Policy and accompanying recommendations will be presented to Cabinet and Full Council for approval and if approved the current policy will be suspended for an agreed length of time to allow the Emergency Interim Policy to take
Scope of the review	effect. This review will focus on developing an Emergency Interim proposal and recommendations to present to Cabinet and full Council for approval.
