Our link inspectors are continuing to work with Torfaen as part of our follow-up process for an authority causing significant concern. Wrexham local authority was removed from the causing significant concern category following a monitoring visit in July. We inspected Gwynedd in the week beginning 26 June and Carmarthenshire in the week beginning 10 July. Both reports have been published on our website. We will be inspecting Conwy local government education service on the week beginning 6 November.

Field work being carried out across local authorities during the autumn term includes a focus on attendance, school improvement and the work of the local authority to mitigate the impact of poverty on learners' attainment.

¹ We will continue to keep our plans under constant review, taking account of the evolving external environment, our audit priorities, the context of our own resourcing and the capacity of audited bodies to engage with us. Follow up work could also lead to other outputs, as may other local audit work where we consider there is merit in a national summary output of some kind.

² We have also published to our website a paper – Our work programme for 2023-2026 – that provides additional detail about our national work (including local thematic reviews). In addition to new work that we will be taking forward in 2023-24, the paper includes details about indicative topics for work to start in 2024-24 or 2025-26.
