NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder’s personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder’s photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder’s signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

Cumulative Impact Assessment

We are aware that our premises licence application falls under an area where a Cumulative Impact Assessment has been carried out.

We wish for our business to run in an area that is safe and free from crime and antisocial behaviour. We want to work with the council and the local police to ensure this continues.

However, we feel that being granted a premises licence would not be a detriment to the community.

Along with the evidence already given in our application, we would like clarify a few more points in regards to the licensing objectives:

- We are predominantly a board game cafe. We are designed, and advertised, as a family friendly place to enjoy social board gaming and events. Our USP is board games and the provision of alcohol is to allow customers to enjoy a drink while playing games.
- We will only have a small selection of alcoholic beverages on sale which will only be permitted to be drunk on site. No drinks will be allowed to leave the premises.
- All drinks will be served to the table. There will be no standing service, and all customers will be required to sit at a table. There will be the opportunity to purchase food and soft drinks, and there will be free access to water.
- We feel that providing the option for alcoholic beverages will help increase that footfall we receive to our business. We are determined to be a safe, welcoming space in the community and will not tolerate antisocial behaviour in our around our premises.
